

Third term Results. December, 2008

Forty-three of our sixty-four primary and secondary students (67%) received top marks at the best schools.

Fourteen of our high school students received A averages. Two of them — Madinah and Sanyu — compiled A-plus marks. Namakula Afuat ranked 1st in her class. Seven received B averages.

Six of our primary students received A averages. Four — Amos, Joseph, Victorias, and Rahim — got A-pluses. Joseph ranked first in his class. Sarah, Victoria, and Rahim were second. Three got B averages.

Our students received performed exceptionally on their national exams taken in the candidate classes: 7th grade, 11th grade, and upon graduation from high school.

Four of our graduating high school students — Katongole, Moses, and Bayona —received first grades on their national UACE examinations. Katongole did best, receiving 23 aggregates. (Top score is 25.)

All four of our 11th graders — Aloysious, Hilda,Alex, and Sylvester —received 1st grades on their national UPE examinations. Aloysious, an AIDS orphan from Rakai did best. He received 14 aggregates in 8 subjects,Â an excellent performance.

Three of our seven 7th grade students — Brian, Frank, and Shakira — received first grades, Three received high second grades.